| 3b: Using questioning and discussion techniques While the teacher may use some low-level questions, he poses questions designed to promote student thinking and understanding. The teacher creates a genuine discussion among students, providing adequate time for students to respond and stepping aside when doing so is appropriate. The teacher challenges students to justify their thinking and successfully engages most students T-Why do you think it's 1:37? T-Do you agree with Isaac? T-Where is my minute hand? T-What is my minute hand on? T-According to this workbook who is right? s- Lynn T-why is Lynn correct? T-We are going to do A, which one is the minute hand, listen to my question T-Which one is my minute hand? ASSESSMENT OF PREPARATION AND PROFESSIONALISM (P&P):

In this section of the form, evaluators should rate evidence for components 1a, 1e, and 4e that was observed within fifteen (15) school days prior to the classroom observation as part of an assessment of a teacher's preparation and professionalism. Each form must contain teacher-specific evidence for each of the components observed.

Additional Evaluator Notes (please attach more pages, as necessary):

Thank you for the professional conversation that we had on 6/20/2024. At the meeting we discussed the following:

You have developed a wonderfully warm and supportive culture in your classroom. It is clear that your students like and respect you. I like that you communicate consistently to the students when you are impressed by their intellectual contributions.

Continue employing a range of strategies to ensure that most students are heard. Encourage others to add on to what was stated by a classmate, and ask students to explain, justify and extend their reasoning. Encourage students to respond in complete sentences, this will then transfer over to their writing skills.

Continue to use your data and progress monitor to help guide you when forming your groups.

If you have any questions or concerns, see me.
